REFLECTING ON GOD'S WORD

Unlike mortals, angels do not die. Nor do they need to eat or drink. Without corruptible bodies, they live eternally with God. But the psalm for today describes the manna that the Israelites ate in the desert as "the bread of angels" (78:25). As the first reading tells us, it seemed to them that it came down from heaven every night. Through the manna, God gave them life when death seemed imminent. Through the manna, their faith in God's eternal care for them was revived.

In the case of the Israelites, they received life by eating the bread from heaven. And the life they were given allowed them to believe. In the case of the disciples of Jesus it's the other way around. We must believe in Jesus as "the true bread from heaven" (John 6:32) in order to receive the eternal life that he provides. —Virginia Stillwell

LIVING GOD'S WORD

The Eucharist has been called the "bread of angels" (Psalm 78:25). It is a free gift from God. It is offered to give us eternal life because through it we receive the life of Christ, "the true bread from heaven" (John 6:32). Jesus promised that those who believe and eat it will hunger and thirst for nothing throughout all eternity.

VIRTUS TRAINING FOR ADULTS (AGE 16+)

All volunteers whose roles put them in contact with children and/or youth (catechists, teachers, helpers, musicians, drivers, volunteers, substitutes) are required to attend a child safety awareness program designed for adults called Virtus®.

Our Religious Education Program uses volunteers in the classrooms as catechists and helpers, as substitute catechists, and as drivers when groups of youth attend activities outside the parish. It is important that we have many of our adults receive the Virtus training so that they can be available to assist in these ministries of the Religious Education Program. This need is usually most needed of those who have youth in 4th, 6th, 7th and 8th grade. Please consider taking this training. It is sponsored by the Archdiocese and is free. Registration must be done online before the session. Follow this link: www.virtusonline.org/virtus/reg\_list. ### Scripture Insights~

The people of Israel show in the First Reading how difficult it was for them to allow God to lead them on their journey from slavery to the Promised Land. They complain and long for the old days "as we sat by our fleshpots and ate our fill of bread" in Egypt. How easily they forgot what the Lord had done for them! Despite their ingratitude, God never abandoned them. Instead, God gave them manna, "bread from heaven," as the Responsorial Psalm says.

The Gospel continues John's narrative, setting the stage for a discourse in which Jesus explains the symbolism and significance of the miracle of the feeding of the five thousand. He challenges his hearers about their motivations. They followed him because they focused on the material gift he had given them—namely, bread to eat. Instead, Jesus focuses on the deeper spiritual meaning they should seek, "the food that endures for eternal life, which the Son of Man will give you." When they point to the gift of manna their ancestors ate in the desert, Jesus reminds them that it was not Moses who gave them manna, but the Father who "gives you the true bread from heaven." When Jesus says "I am the bread of life," he shows how the manna in the desert foreshadowed his own coming. "I am" is the way Jesus identifies himself with God, claiming his divinity. He speaks in the manner of God in the Old Testament where "I am" is God's name (Exodus 3:14). As "the bread of life," Jesus is the one who gives bread that is eternal life. Real hunger can only be satisfied through a personal relationship with Jesus.

- What does the image of "the fleshpots of Egypt" convey to you?
- Reflect on how the Old Testament miracle of the manna in the desert foreshadows the feeding of five thousand. How would you explain that to someone outside the faith?
- How do you see the Sacrament of the Eucharist nourishing you on your journey of life? And how does it offer you a foretaste of the eternal life that is to come?

Do not work for food that perishes
but for the food that endures for eternal life.
— John 6:27a

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

In 1794, a young Irishwoman befriended two widows aboard ship while emigrating to America. They bought a house in Philadelphia and began to live a community life under the direction of a priest. Soon they relocated to Washington. There, the "pious ladies," as the neighbors called them, were asked by their priest friend, by then the president of Georgetown University, to begin a religious community. In 1799 they established a branch of the Visitation Order founded by Saint Jane de Chantal and Saint Francis de Sales in the 1620s.

The unique vision of this order followed a sensible routine, less arduous and more flexible than most traditions, and also accepted widows and older women. Amazingly, this American outpost of the Visitation began without reference to the "rule" of the Order. Most of the European convents had been lost under the "reign of terror," and the rules and customs of the community could not be obtained. A copy of the rule was discovered in 1812, and in 1816 the pope officially established the monastery. By then, some French nuns had regrouped, and they sent a habit and cross to be copied. (No religious wore the habit in public in the United States until after the Civil War.) From the beginning, the Georgetown nuns had an educational mission, even though they discovered in the "rule" that such work was officially off-limits for the contemplative life. In America, the nuns depended on a school for their livelihood, so the rule was adapted. Today, the Academy of the Visitation is a thriving example of excellence in Catholic education, and the adjacent monastery is the oldest monastic foundation in the original thirteen United States.
